COURSE OUTLINE

Course No : LEA 6

Course Title : COMPARATIVE POLICE SYSTEM

Credit Unit : 3 units

Scope and Objectives:

Study of the different transnational crimes, its nature and effects as well as the organization of the law enforcement set-up in the Philippines and its comparison of selected police models and their relations with Interpol and the UN bodies in the campaign against transnational crimes and in the promotion of world peace.

Recommended Textbooks/References:

OUTLINE OF THE COURSE

Contents | No. of Hours
--- | ---

I. Effects of globalization on the role of police
   1. Threat and opportunities brought about by globalization 1.5
   2. Discuss the nature of transnational crimes like:
      2.1 terrorism 2
      2.2 drug trafficking 2
      2.3 money laundering 2
      2.4 human trafficking 2
      2.5 cyber crimes 2

II. Various police models abroad
   1. Police models of Japan, Singapore and other ASEAN countries 3.5
   2. Australian police 2.5
   3. US police 2.5
   4. European police 2.5
   5. Analyse police programs in selected countries 2.5

III. International Police
   1. Interpol’s contribution in combating information technology crime and international terrorism 3.5
   2. Interpol’s concept of criminal intelligence analysis 3.5
   3. UN convention against transnational crime 3.5
   4. Contributions of ASEANAPOL to regional peace and security 3

IV. Participation of PNP personnel in UN peacekeeping missions
   1. Functions of UN peacekeeping missions 4.5